Feb 12th – “Back to the basics!” – This session is for salespeople who are good, but are stuck and need to get past 12-15 cars per month consistently.

Feb 13th – “Taking it to the NEXT level!” – This class is for salespeople who have got the basics down and believe they have what it takes to sell 20, 30, or even 40+ cars!

Jonathan W. Dawson – Car Salesman | Trainer | Consultant | Speaker | Founder of Sellchology® - Selling through psychology

Learn from a sales trainer who still ACTUALLY sells cars! Jonathan is constantly given the opportunity to discover new techniques and learn from the real world of automotive retail sales because he still sells. You'll enjoy his "info-train-ment" style of presenting information. He's energetic and approachable, and his content comes from recent experiences at dealerships all over the world and his ability to learn through his relationships with many of the industry's top producing dealerships.

Do you like psychology? If so, you'll love Sellchology®! Jonathan loves helping salespeople and managers discover the power and profits that comes from becoming an empowered sales professional through the psychology of sales and marketing! His passion is to teach salespeople how to "out-experience" their competition and build a business based on creating RAVING FANS advocates.

You may recognize Jonathan from his contributions at: NADA Conventions, Digital Dealer Conferences, CBT News, Driving Sales Executive Summits, the Hustle&Grind Conference, his blog (WhyCarGuy.com), his YouTube videos or his presence on many industry Facebook groups. He has also been a featured speaker for several state association meetings, including for the GADA and 20 group meetings.
